Dismissed Petition. Judge Dodge of the United States district court Friday declined to adjudge the Massachusetts Hide corporation of High street bankrupt on p ition of Norwich Belt Manufacturing company and the J. G. Bridges company, says Saturday's Boston Post The court ruled that the petitioners must prove that the corporation was insolvent at the time it is said to have made the transfers. Because they failed to do this, the court ordered their petition to have the corporation

Probable cause was found in the case of the state against Courtland Maynard of Quaker Hill, charged with arson, and he was bound over to the next term of the superior court under bonds of $500.
